WHAT PLACE FEELS LIKE HOME?

I was born and raised in Kansas City. I would like to think that San Diego is my home away from home as I enjoy being there most for a peaceful vacation spot!

WHAT'S YOUR EDUCATION AND WORK BACKGROUND?

I have my Master of Science in Counseling Psychology from Avila University.

I come from a child welfare background, dedicating my post-bachelor life to social work & case management with children & families who have been abused, neglected, or in the foster care system.

I've also interned and have done work as a therapist previously with another agency that also offers therapy to abused & neglected children.

WHAT DREW YOU TO WORK AT MOCSA?

I was drawn to MOCSA as all of my experience has been around helping those who have dealt with some form of trauma.

I have specifically dealt with many cases that touched on sexual trauma and knew this was an area that is near and dear to my heart.

Being able to help individuals heal who have dealt with those forms of trauma is something I've always been extremely passionate about.

WHAT DO YOU LIKE TO DO IN YOUR FREE TIME?

I am first and foremost a mommy of two, so a lot of my interests have been those of my small ones such as going to the park & hanging out at the pool!

I also love traveling to different places with two of my favorite places being California and Puerto Rico!

I also enjoy fashion and specifically fashion design. I have created several articles of clothing in the past and enjoy dressing up my whole family for special occasions!

WHAT'S YOUR FAVORITE QUOTE?

My mission in life is not merely to survive, but to thrive*; and to do so with some* passion*, some* compassion*, some* humor*, and some* style.

- MAYA ANGELOU

This quote not only sums up pretty much my existence, but also sums up what I try to convey to clients and individuals I come across.

It is powerful and well said!
